PEN & PAPER

POWERED BY PLANETPRESS SUITE

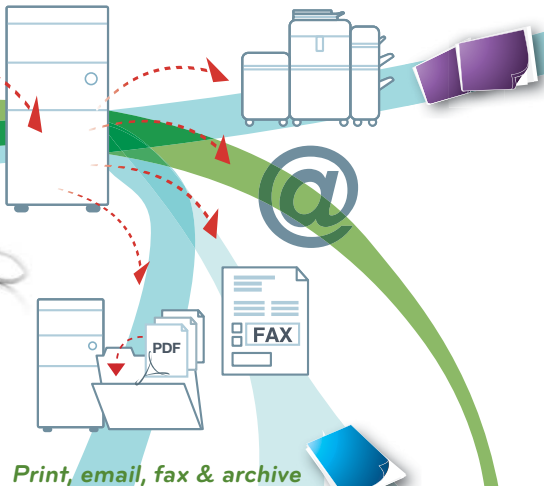

The Anoto digital pen & paper technology has been around for a while.

Combining the use of an Anoto digital pen with patterned printed paper, users can automatically capture handwritten text and marks in business forms.

So what makes PlanetPress Capture different?

PlanetPress Capture, a new functionality of PlanetPress Suite, offers an intuitive interface allowing users to add an unlimited number of capture zones to business documents. Each capture zone can be customized to fit a specific area on a document, existing or new. Once the Anoto digital pen is used on one of the capture zone, any business process can be triggered, in real-time!

PlanetPress Capture is a modular and scalable solution. Adapt your licenses as your business grows, with no impact on your infrastructure.

The Benefits

Document handling often slows down processing. Once signed, it may need to be scanned for digital archiving or stored in a filing cabinet, sent by mail or email. With PlanetPress Capture, you can automate a series of business processes, in parallel to your current ones, eliminating delays, improving productivity.

Productivity increase

- Validate and digitize data in real time
- Automate document processing, via multiple channels
- Eliminate paper document scanning and data entry

Cost efficiency

- Trigger automated business processes at point of signature
- Reduce labor and processing costs
- Eliminate errors generated by manual handling (data entry/scanning)

Ease of use

- Technology based on a commonly used object
- Requires no changes to work routines or existing processes
- Necessitates very limited user training

Whether the signature or handwriting is done on-site or remotely, PlanetPress Capture is the ideal solution!

On-site forms such as:

- Customer application forms
- Sales orders and contracts
- Car rental contracts
- Inventory/Warehouse tracking forms

Mobile forms such as:

- Work orders
- Bills of lading
- Pick tickets
- Delivery notices

PLANETPRESS. SUITE

The perfect solution for all your documents & forms

Whether they require signature or handwritten information, your business documents have one thing in common: their creation, processing and distribution are expensive. With PlanetPress Suite, you have a single and affordable solution for all your documents and forms integrating host data and ink.
